Governing Structures And Delegation Governance Outcome: Good Performance and Effective Control
Principle 6: Primary role and Responsibilities of the Board The governing body should serve as a focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation.	Refer to the sections on board governance and leadership on page 32 of the Brimstone IR.
Principle 7: Composition of the Board The governing body should comprise the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively.	Refer to pages 14 to 15 of the Brimstone IR for details of the Brimstone directorate. The chairman is not an independent non-executive director, however a strong lead independent director ensures that the necessary independence is maintained in the functioning of the Board. The Board is comprised of a majority of independent non-executives and is satisfied that there is the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, culture, age, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively. An approved Diversity policy is in place.
Principle 8: Committees of the Board The governing body should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgement, and assist with the balance of power and effective discharge of its duties.	The Board is satisfied that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgement, and assist with the balance of power and effective discharge of its duties. Please refer to pages 33 to 36 of the Brimstone IR for an explanation of how the Board delegates within its own structures. Reports from the Social and Ethics and Remuneration and Nominations Committees can be found on pages 38 to 46 of the IR. The Audit Committee has also executed its responsibilities as set out in Section 94 of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 and as set out in 3.84(h) of the JSE Limited Listing Requirements. Further detail can be found on pages 47 to 49 of the IR.
Principle 9: Evaluations of the performance of the Board The governing body should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and its individual members, support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness.	Performance evaluations of the board, its sub-committee, individual directors, chairman, CEO and the company secretary are conducted. The nomination for re-appointment of a director only occurs after the nominations committee and board have recommended the member. Any non-executive director over the age of 70 years is re-elected annually by the Remuneration and Nominations Committee for approval by the Board. The Lead Independent Director was re-elected for the ensuing year.
Principle 10: Appointment and Delegation to management The governing body should ensure that the appointment of, and delegation to, management contribute to role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibilities.	The Board is satisfied that the appointment of, and the delegation to management contributes to role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibilities.
